The distinguished and very well experienced journalist in talk shows, “Nashwa Al Rwini”, presents an exceptional talk show named “Nashwa” airing on Dubai TV. Nashwa has had a successful career in the field of art where she presented, prepared and observed more than 35 successful shows in numerous channels such as Qatar TV and MBC. She has also won many Arab prizes, and works currently as a consultant for a number of international directors such as Ridley Scott, Steven Gigen, and Barry White to choose Arab singers and help them become famous worldwide.

“Nashwa” is a variety show dealing with social and human issues faced by our Arab communities, including human tragedies and pains, and occasionally discussing cheerful or serious matters. Tender, full of esprit, the presenter approaches different matters that attract the audience’s attention in order to break the silence that surrounds her, resorting to impressive experiences of a number of guests. As always, Nashwa colors her shows with diversity; therefore, each part of the show features singing entertaining shots, as well as hot interviews with the favorite and most famous artists.
